Residential Hall & Colleges

Depending on availability, the University's Residential Halls and Colleges offer casual accommodation. Availability is generally, but not always, during non-semester periods.

Please submit your accommodation enquiry online on the Colleges website. They will contact you regarding facilities and rates they can offer, and availability for your required dates:

Other websites

For those on a limited budget www.hostelworld.com offers deals on backpacker hostels. Some of these hostels offer private rooms along with dormitory style accommodation. Check the reviews section for each hostel.

Many travellers find the Trip Adviser website useful to check guest reviews, and find the cheapest rates: www.tripadvisor.com

‘Stayz’ is an advertising website which allows property owners to list and promote holiday accommodation: www.stayz.com.au

Check ‘Rentahome’ www.rent-a-home.com.au for short-term and longer-stay accommodation in fully-furnished and self-contained apartments and homes. Choose from budget or luxury accommodation in central city, suburb and beachside locations. Each property has a minimum stay requirement.

Hotel list

The following is a list of hotels located nearby the University of Melbourne’s Parkville campus. Please contact these facilities directly to make a reservation, or if you have further queries about their services.

To be eligible for discount rates, many accommodation facilities require you to show a current student ID card or proof of enrolment. Some accommodation providers may also offer further discounts for cash payment (get a receipt!) or longer-term stays.

During special event periods, temporary accommodation is generally heavily booked, and you need to book early to secure a room. Hotels usually also increase their rate during these times, and may impose a two-night minimum stay.

Large Melbourne events include, but are not limited to, the Australian Open tennis tournament (late January), Grand Prix (late March), AFL Grand Final (late September) and the Spring Racing Carnival (Oct - Nov)
