

South Lawn – Bookable Areas

- Amplified & loud music or noise likely to disturb others is prohibited.
- The event organiser is responsible at all times for ensuring the good order, conduct and behaviour of those persons attending the event.
- The University campus is a public open space and the free movement of others must not be impeded.
- A 3m radius protection zone must be adhered to around all trees. Marquees must remain clear of this zone.
- Portable BBQ's must be situated on a suitable ground covering to protect the grass or other surface (a LARGE sheet of cardboard or a ground sheet would be ideal) and a suitable container utilized to catch, collect and dispose of BBQ runoff. BBQ's must not be operated within 4.5m of any foliage or on any declared Total Fire Ban day.
- Active recreational activities such as football are not permitted.
- The event organiser must ensure the event area is kept free of rubbish and that waste is placed into proper containers or bins provided. Additional litter or recycling bins can be provided on request at the time of making the booking.
- All reasonable directions given by University of Melbourne Security staff must be adhered to at all times.
